Board approves all who may want to attend the New Hampshire Municipal Association Annual Conference.

Conversation on whether to use some of the fund balance towards this year's tax rate. Board decided to wait.

Old Business

J. Bailey spoke regarding the Halloween Party. A lot of volunteers this year. Over 129 in attendance. Kids of all ages enjoyed. All loved the magician.

New Business

Need for new furniture for the common room in Municipal Building. Will increase the amount in the new budget for next year.

Eva Nelson came in front of the Board to voice her concerns with a certain person who is accessing the 244 acres of Town property. This individual was charge with placing spike strips on town property and Eva Nelson is concerned it is going to happen again. J. Bailey offered to look into what this individual was charge with and what are the future restrictions are. Board will contact Eva Nelson with their findings.

Public Participation

Non-Public has been tabled at this time.

J. Bailey motions to adjourn at 7:58 PM, M. Schwarz seconds, all in favor.
